

LED HUNTER

Type of luminaire

LED HUNTER is a new luminaire for application with Hunter Douglas ceilings. While it can be used for new installations, it can also easily exchange existing fluorescent luminaires in 1x36W or 1x58W without the need to re-do the whole specialized ceiling.

Mounting

The luminaires is designed for recessed mounting in standard ceilings Hunter Douglas ceiling.

Application

With its IP 40 protection level, LED HUNTER can be used for walkways, undergrounds, corridors, hospitals where new or existing Hunter Douglas ceiling is mounted.

Optical system

The LED luminaire is with double parabolic optical system designed especially for LEDs source of light. The optics is produced from highly efficient anodized aluminum in combination with dedicated opal diffuser. For this optical system, ELUX has a registered EU design. The result is a LED luminaire with excellent comfort and efficiency.

Electrical connection

The luminaire is equipped with automatic push-in connector. Options with connectors Wieland, Wago and Ensto are also possible.

Warranty

The operational life of the LED modules used is minimum 50,000 h. The warranty of the luminaire is 5 years.

Technical Specifications*

*All specifications are for Philips components.

reserves the rights to further improve the listed luminaires.